

Thank you for participating in the Operation Military Kids Hero Pack and Letter Writing Project

INSTRUCTIONS:

Each Hero Pack will include a hand-written note of encouragement written to a military soldier, a military child and a military family. Letters are written by volunteers who are involved in a particular community's project. These volunteers may include community members, children, teens, families and/or others.

Please send all letters to:

Serve Idaho, ATTN: Jennifer Caprile, 317 W. Main St., Boise ID 83735

This is a list of guidelines to follow while writing a letter.

- Letter must be politically neutral.
- Letter must have a positive tone and politically neutral. Do not tell the military youth how bad you think their situation is or how sorry you may feel for them.
- Do not provide personal identification of who wrote the letter (NO phone numbers, email address, street address, etc.)
- Thank the youth for their sacrifices that they are making.
- Remind the military youth that they are heroes too.
- The message in each letter should come from "the heart" so there is no standard format.

(See attached sample letters)

Dear Military hero,
you are a hero in my eyes 😊 your sacrifice of a loved family member is so greatly appreciated! Words cannot express my love for you and amazing individuals such as you.

Things are rough but my greatest advice I could ever think to give you would be to pray. I know Jesus Christ lives and our heavenly father can answer our prayers. Even if ~~there~~ <sup>they're</sup> prayers of comfort.

Again, your sacrifice does NOT go unnoticed and you yes you, ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> incredible. Never forget your in thousands of prayers, daily. You are special! 😊 with so much love,

-Kassidy-

To a very awesome person,

I wanted to take the time to let you know how strong & courageous you are! I know you are asked to deal with hard things - like having members of your family gone at certain periods of time - which can easily get some people down. However, you are a part of a very honorable & noble cause, and I would like to thank you for your honorable & noble efforts! Not everyone could do what you do, & that is why I want to again tell you how amazing & super fabulous you are!

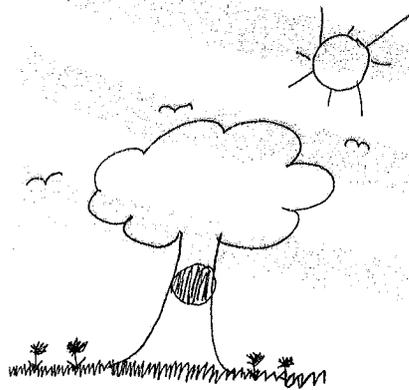

-A humbled individual, Amanda ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ ☺

I think you are so amazing and I don't even know you! You're so brave and cool. My brother is in the Army and I really miss him. But I know he's serving his country and doing the right thing with his life. I'm not sure what else to write so instead I'll draw a picture! ☺
